ION GETTY, left, the only Canadian first string quarterback in the country and Jackie Parker, who ran wild over the Montreal Alouettes scoring 18 points to set a new Grey Cup record for individual scoring in the Edmonton Eskimos' third straight win over the Alts. Getty performed brilliantly to lead the Western Champs to a one-sided 50-27 victory over the Bats.

CONTRAIL DRESS—An elegantly draped cocktail dress designed by Jacques de Molay for Royal Irish Fairs in sand fabric. The skirt has a sash drape and the neckline is interwoven with bands of white or gravity.

PORTRAIT OF A CITY, FORT SAID—The cannon of a British tank, an old-fashioned carriage, a half-bred Egyptian youngster and the ruins of a bombed-out building—these are the ingredients in this portrait of Fort Said, Egypt. The city had been the scene of fighting between Anglo-French invasion forces and Egyptian defenders.

GEN. ALFRED M. GREENHILL, left, retiring North Atlantic Treaty Organization force commander, with his successor, U.S. Air Force Gen. Lauris Norstad, at change of command ceremonies at NATO headquarters near Paris. General Greenhill is retiring to the U.S. to head the American Red Cross.

APPLE CASTLE—This ornamental tower in Fresno, Fresno, should be a monument to health. It apples a day long devoted every, representing the local Tower of Advance Church, the cover reproduction is made of hundreds of apples. Displayed at the Fruit Exhibition, the apple monument to withstand weathering tests and remain intact for the duration of the show.

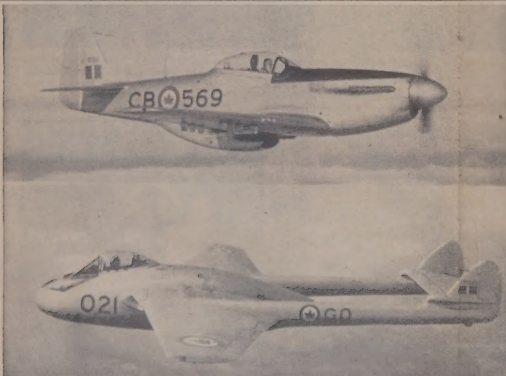

AGITATED ORIENTAL ALLEGATION—This 12-pound Chinese piglet, believed to be the last of his species, has a hungry look in the arms of Bob Enoble, owner of the English house at New York's Bronx Zoo. The owner of those piglets from arrived in the city from the Warren, Poughkeepsie, New York and the Bronx Zoo, in 1955.

HAL PATTERSON of the Alouettes smiles happily as he catches trophies as the outstanding player in Canadian football for 1955. The "new" quarterback, and in the third straight Alouettes game is with the award. Pat Patterson took it last year and then Robberson in 1954.

IF YOU OVERHEARD—If you can't pass around you're going over. This comes to be the motto of this tractor, playing "puzz" back with a car in Princeton, Va. The stalled tractor was being used by the car when it suddenly appeared into action and crashed up the car's back.

BEING RETIRED—The RCAF has announced that two of its one-fifth-century fighters, including the first jet to come into operational service with the Air Force, are being retired after long and useful service. A single model of each is being retained and will be built in storage by the RCAF.

War and since, and the jet Vampire, used to equip the Air Force's first jet squadrons in 1945, are being retired after long and useful service. A single model of each is being retained and will be built in storage by the RCAF.

300 Million dollar industry

Canada's poultry industry, if the estimated one dollar basis, has increased four fold since pre-war years. In 1914, the industry was valued at $75 million. In 1934, it was valued at $300 million. The value of the industry is based on the value of the birds, not on the value of the products. The value of the products is based on the value of the birds, not on the value of the products.

There has been a tremendous increase in the poultry industry in the last few years. Production has become highly specialized, processing is now done on a large scale, and the industry is becoming more and more important. The industry is becoming more and more important.

Manitoba's resources create waste interest

A new mineral find which has made headlines throughout the continent, suggesting oil fields and bauxite, which there are, are of no interest in Manitoba's rich resources.

It is a railway man, F. C. Bell, minister of mines and natural resources, who said that when the International Nickel Company, Ltd., of Montreal, has been told that there is no interest in the mining world. In Manitoba, the only interest in the mining world is in the nickel world.

This report, however, was speeded up by the discovery of a deposit in northern Manitoba. The deposit is of the same type as the one in the United States, and it is of the same type as the one in the United States.

Funny and Otherwise

Mr. Smith—Have you sold your car?
Mrs. Jones—No. After reading the news's statement of it, I prefer to be just the housewife.

Politeness—An accident, sir?
Driver—(who has collided with lamp post) No, thank you—just had one.

Lerner's man came home from technical college and said his class was taking for a technical class called "What's that?" said the farmer: "It's a field that will disintegrate anything," explained the son.

Driver—Lied, added the farmer when you find it, what you guess keep it?
The guy and girl charged across a corner and banged snuff into each other. They stopped back, apologized, and started up again. But they both decided in the same direction, and they bumped one another. They bumped one another, and they bumped one another.

The teacher was holding an apple.
"Will you tell me what you think of this apple?" asked the teacher.
"It's a little bit like a nut," said the student.

CHRISTMAS, 1956

Christmas is the richest event in the world's calendar. It is a time of cheerfulness and inspiring feeling, strengthening our way into the new year. As the heart of winter glows with bright, candle light and starlight.

At the first Christmas, wise men came from afar, guided to the crib, by a star. How different history might be if the leaders of our world and the ordinary man were stirred by the spirit of the world to ambitions other than personal power and national expansion. How different if people and nations everywhere accepted the guidance of God as Joseph and Mary accepted it—and the shepherds—and the wise men.

Christmas in Canada is especially a season of Goodwill. Emotionally, we are generally conservative, and feel best in showing what might be considered a soft sort of sentimentality, but in the Christmas spirit, we do our best to express that Goodwill which we feel. So we mail Christmas cards to our friends, we give presents to those nearest and dearest to us—we visit our relatives, or have them visit us. We decorate our homes with symbols to add to the Christmas spirit, we decorate our stores to spread the Christmas feeling.

Spiritual values must find material expression. Goodwill, love, charity and even religion are things of the spirit. Our individual methods of expressing Goodwill may be different. To some it will be to affectionate kisses, to others the clasp of a hand, the sparkle in the eye, the smile on the cheek, and many times it will be the hearty greeting, "Merry Christmas," in words or print.

Santa Claus with his jolly smile, is the personalized symbol of the spirit of Christmas, the season of Goodwill.

PRIME MINISTER AND THE PRESS

Press Gallery correspondent of Winning Free Press reports disgusting incident involving Prime Minister St. Laurent's relation with the press.

Newspaperman who protested Government ruling that only one reporter, a representative of Canadian Press, would be allowed to travel on aircraft carrier Magnificent if and when that vessel sails for Middle East, was told by Mr. St. Laurent with considerable heat that the Government was under no obligation to provide facilities for newspapermen "to write the kind of stories they too often write about the armed forces."

Implication of Prime Minister's remark, Winning Free Press correspondent concludes, is that "unless newspapermen wrote stories of which the Government approved, they would not be able to get accommodation on transports carrying the forces to the Middle East."

Egg Price Support Continues

OTTAWA, December 14, 1956—The Right Honourable James G. Gardiner announced today that the price support program for eggs will be continued during 1957 on the same terms and conditions as applied in 1956. The support price will again be 35 cents per dozen, basic Grade A Large eggs delivered at storage points.

Mr. Gardiner said that the Board would, as necessary, purchase eggs at the established price, plus carrying charges, and thus enable commercial buyers and marketing organizations to maintain prices to producers in keeping with the support price.
